

Sample: Conceptual Design

Building Cluster Layout

These illustrations were prepared by the Presidio Trust to aid prospective respondents to the West Crissy Field RFP. They are meant to give direction related to the Project Overview requirement calling for a conceptual design and layout. The drawings provide a general example as to the level of detail required in a submittal. Providing more detail is not required at this stage and will not necessarily benefit the evaluation of a proposal.