Rob Hill Campground Taking Reservations for the 2022 Season
New streamlined reservation system 'Recreation.gov' improves the visitor experience

San Francisco, CA (March 8, 2022) – The Presidio’s Rob Hill Campground, one of only two campgrounds in San Francisco, will soon open reservations for the season, April 1 - October 31, 2022. For the first time, bookings will be managed through Recreation.Gov, the industry standard for most federal camping reservations. The use of this platform will greatly streamline the booking process, making it more convenient and flexible for campers to arrange their visits. Reservations will be available on a first-come, first-served, six-month rolling basis beginning 7:00am Pacific Time, March 14.

Located on four wooded acres in the Presidio, Rob Hill Campground is a secluded spot tucked away in a grove of cypress and eucalyptus trees with spectacular views of the Pacific Ocean and nearby trails and overlooks. It offers a one-of-a-kind national park camping experience at the edge of San Francisco. Each of the four group campsites can accommodate up to 30 people and are equipped with a fire ring, a charcoal BBQ grill, two food storage lockers, four picnic tables, and each comes with four parking permits. Shared resources include water faucets, restrooms, an indoor scullery for washing dishes, bike racks, and refuse receptacles.

Newly available on Recreation.gov, prospective campers can book reservations instantly 24-hours a day using their online portal or mobile app. The system offers the flexibility to manage the entire visit online, and staff are also available to assist by telephone or email. A one-stop-shop for America’s outdoor and cultural destinations, Recreation.gov also provides useful information on facilities, nearby attractions, amenities, photos, and more for each campsite.

“We’re happy to welcome visitors to enjoy another season of great camping experiences in the Presidio,” said Presidio Trust Visitor Services Manager Andrea Parker. “It’s especially exciting to see Rob Hill join the list of other national park campgrounds serviced by Recreation.gov, for real-time online reservations.”

Rob Hill Campground is located at 1475 Central Magazine Road, San Francisco, California, 94129. The cost is $132 per site, per night during peak times, and $87 per site, per night during off-peak nights. Visit Recreation.gov for reservations. About the Presidio + Presidio Trust

The Presidio is one of America's most visited national park sites, located within the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. Spanning 1,500 acres next to San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge, the Presidio is among the most biologically diverse parks in America. Historically a home to native peoples and a military post under three flags, its facilities have been reinvented as museums, restaurants, hotels, homes, and offices. The Presidio Trust is the federal agency that stewards the Presidio, in partnership with the National Park Service and with support from the Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy. The Trust sustains the Presidio by leasing homes and workplaces and offering visitor amenities. Learn more at presidio.gov.
