Overview for Booking a Reservation

Placing Tentative Holds: Holds will be accepted by submitting a preliminary reservation form to hold a date for 10 calendar days, unless challenged. Holds will be released at the end of the hold date. Confirmation to move into Permitting Process must be received in writing via email.

Challenging Holds & Challenging Pending Reservations: A challenge to a tentative hold/pending permit reservation may be placed by submitting a meeting reservation form. When challenged, parties with tentative holds need to confirm reservation, move into the permitting process and pay venue fees or relinquish the date/venue immediately. When challenged, parties with pending reservations will be required to immediately a) confirm reservation b) produce a signed Special Use Permit by the specified due date and c) pay all venue fees due. If a Challenger to a tentative hold/pending reservation is awarded the date/venue, then the challenger will be required to immediately sign the Special Use Permit and pay all venue fees. Failure to comply with above requirements will result in tentative or challenged holds being released.

Permits, Fees & Deposits: Venue fees must be paid online with a credit card or bank account (ACH). Failure to submit payments with a returned signed Special Use Permit by the required due date will be cause for cancellation of reservation.

Payment Schedule: 50% of non-refundable venue fees will be due with returned signed Permit. The balance of all applicable fees are due 180 days in advance. Up to $24,999 may be charged to an event via credit card.

Security Deposit Refunds: Processed either by US Treasury Check or refunded back to the most recently charged non-expired credit card on file. Refunds are expected to occur within 60 (sixty) days after event date. Refunding via credit card must not exceed the amounts originally charged on a card. Social Security Numbers or Federal Tax ID's required for refunds made via US Treasury and for payments made via ACH or expired credit cards.

Special Use Permit Information: Permittee will assume the legal and financial obligations specified in the Special Use Permit. An event is not confirmed until a duly authorized and signed Special Use Permit has been executed.

By submitting a reservation form, the potential permit holder has a) reviewed the Overview information on the Rate Sheet and Reservation Form b) reviewed Rules for Events, Meetings and Catering c) cancellation policy d) capacities e) venue information via www.presidio.gov/venues prior to submitting reservation form and f) completed the reservation form accurately. Requested edits after an emailed DocuSign permit has been delivered will incur additionally administrative fees to make changes.
